13. QUESTIONS/CONCERNS FORUM WITH PUBLIC AND PRESS:

Ingrid Kaczmarek asked what happened to Biorefinex building their plant in Calmar, as now it will be built in another Town, she wondered why so much effort was put into these projects and then they are forgotten about. Further she expressed concerns that the neighbour across her back lane had thistles and has had them for ten years and they were coming across into her garden and that she had made complaints to Peace Officers, but found no resolution.

Director of Planning & Development Melesko explained that Biorefinex was a project in conjunction with the starch plant and Bioneutra and that Biorefinex did not follow through with Calmar, as the other projects were not proceeding at this time. Council suggested that she talk to Councillor Bartlett as he was the only member on Council at that time.

Town Manager Rodberg advised she would look into the thistles and talk to Peace Officers on the complaint.
