MAYOR'S CORNER AND IN THE KNOW WITH THE CAO

April showers bring May flowers...

Spring is now upon us as the sun is with us longer each day. I would like to take a moment and thank all our public works & parks staff for their commitment to our roads, walking paths and our winter facilities. Thank you to all citizens and businesses for keeping walks cleared and passable through the winter season. The trees are starting to bloom, and many gardeners are getting the itch to start planning and planting early bulbs and preparing their garden plans. Please remember to include our local businesses in all your spring plans as they all strive to provide great services to our community.

The town has received the property tax valuations. Administration and Council will work through the final stages of our 2024 budget and set the mill rates in April so that tax notices can be sent out. Please watch your mail for these upcoming notices.

Finally, April 14th to April 20th is National Volunteer Week. We would like to extend a huge thank you to all volunteers. Without these special people we would not enjoy many of the programs within our community. I tip my hat to you all.

Sean Carnahan, Mayor

Calmar a great place to call home

In the last two editions of the Chronicle, I highlighted two departments that provide services to residents. This month, I would like to discuss Corporate Services, a department that provides services to both residents and other groups within the town's administration. For the residents, this department is responsible for overseeing the accounts payable and receivable. If you are paying an invoice or have provided a service to the Town and now require payment, this department is going to look after you. When you have questions about your utility bill or your assessment, Corporate Services is there to answer your questions. This department is also the point of contact for everyone that has an inquiry, and its staff will direct you to the appropriate department, pending your needs. While some inquiries may be super quick to answer, others will require more time, therefore, providing as much information as possible when you submit an inquiry will facilitate the process.

As for Corporate Services internal roles, these include; implementing financial processes such as reporting, monitoring, and processing, projecting revenues and expenses, and assisting each department with the preparation of their budget. Corporate Services also includes the function of Human Resources for the town's administration.

For more information about Calmar's Corporate Services or other town related topics, please reach out to me.

Peace Officer Corner

Good Day Town of Calmar...

Spring is here! Winter was not as bad as it used to be and warmer weather is just around the corner. Just a few things to bring up:

This is the time of year where our lawns and yard show the winter wear. From dog feces, blowing garbage, and other accumulated material, our yards will for sure require attention. Take the time to address any property maintenance issues before they grow into larger issues that require more time due to being left unattended.

Pets will be out and about the yard more. Please ensure proper care for your furry family members while outside. Shelter, food, and not allowing them to be a nuisance to neighboring homes. Barking at large, cats spraying on homes and gardens, etc.

Feeding of wild animals. It's nice to be generous in providing food for wild animals, but please consider the associated risk with feeding our wild cats, geese, etc. this will create a steady stream of unwanted animals into our town costing the tax payers to relocate, house, or veterinarian fees that these animals may require. We all should respect nature and keep the wild animals just that, wild. Feeding only creates bad habits within these animals which also make for unsafe encounters with our kids and adults throughout our community.

Speed in town. As the roads get drier, the itch to pick up the speed in town grows larger. Calmar is home to a lot of young children who tend to forget the safety risks while crossing roads, as we all used to. Do not risk a life changing catastrophic event because of a choice to race your vehicle or act in an unsafe manner. Any event of this nature will surely mean the victim and family will be known to the offender and family. Accidents may occur, but they are not accidents when they occur by choice. Do not make the choice to have our roads be unsafe for our residents and youth.

Lastly, you have all probably seen our new red-bearded Community Peace Officer. OFFICER CVIJETIC (pronounced CIV EH JET ICK) is up and running in both Calmar and Thorsby. He's a great addition to our enforcement team. Comes with a lot of enthusiasm, and most important, he cares about this community like the rest of the Enforcement Department does. Calmar will get more coverage through the seven day week, and he's one more person to count on in times of need. Calmar only hires CPO's with names you can't pronounce. Welcome to the Town of Calmar Officer CVIJETIC !

Enjoy the warmer weather visiting your neighbors. If they're more annoying than your family, well, you can always visit your Enforcement team. If we're more annoying than both of the others, I guess your stuck walking alone!

Take care and drive safe.

Getting to know your local businesses

The Town of Calmar is excited to present each of our businesses in a spotlight each month in the Calmar Chronicle! We will be interviewing a different business each month until we have highlighted every single business in the Town of Calmar. We invite you all to read about and get to know Glenn and Wanda from For the Love of Perogies "N" Stuff

Tell us about your business.

Hi! We are a retail outlet selling "Yo Baba" Ukrainian foods, plus we are the Ultra-Pure R/O water refill station. We are also happy to carry "Rainbow Acres", locally grown, produce and preserves. As well as "A & A Sausage" products. We proudly market locally produced and home-made crafts and gifts. If you are looking for gift certificates, we have those in the amount of your choice.

the interview

Glenn Wurban & Wanda Patterson, Owners, For the Love of Perogies "N" Stuff

Why did you choose to open a business in Calmar?

We felt the community and surrounding area would benefit from the delicious hand-made Ukrainian foods along with all of the other "stuff" we carry!

What is it like operating a business in rural Alberta, along HWY 39, the high load corridor?

Every day is a new experience for us. With the high traffic load, we are pleased to meet new people. Some are just curiously checking us out, and then usually become customers. Others are customers that quite often become friends. All in all, its turning into an amazing experience.

Do you have any advice for a new business opening up in Calmar?

Spend some time and do your research to find out what the Town of Calmar and the surrounding areas are lacking. See if your plan has a chance of succeeding. Find a suitable location and if the majority of the stars line up, take the plunge! It might be the best thing you took a chance on! So far, for us, it has been a great experience, and we look forward to serving our community and seeing where For the Love of Perogies "N" Stuff takes us.

Is there anything you want to add?

We'd like to thank our amazing customers, family, and friends for your continued support. If you haven't had the opportunity to stop by, please do and see what we have to offer. Call us at (780) 826-0955. You might be pleasantly surprised.

Spring Cleaning of the Mind: Refreshing Mental Spaces for Renewed Wellness

As the brighter hues of spring start to emerge, it's not just our physical spaces that could use a thorough cleaning – our minds could benefit from a refreshing overhaul as well. Just as we declutter our homes, the practice of spring cleaning our minds can bring about renewed clarity, positivity, and overall well-being.

Letting Go of Mental Clutter: Similar to clearing out physical clutter, it's essential to identify and release mental clutter that weighs us down. This could include negative thought patterns, grudges, or worries about the past or future. Engaging in mindfulness practices such as meditation or journaling can help identify and gently release these burdens, creating space for more constructive and uplifting thoughts.

Cultivating Positive Habits: Spring presents an opportune time to establish or reinforce positive habits that nurture our mental health. Incorporating activities like regular exercise, spending time outdoors, or practicing gratitude can foster a sense of well-being and resilience. Additionally, embracing hobbies or creative pursuits can stimulate the mind and bring joy and fulfillment.

Nurturing Inner Growth: Just as spring is a season of growth and renewal in nature, it's an ideal time to focus on personal growth and development. Setting intentions or goals aligned with our values and aspirations can provide direction and purpose. Engaging in self-reflection and seeking opportunities for learning and self-improvement can lead to profound inner transformation.

Cultivating Mindful Connections: Finally, spring cleaning of the mind involves nurturing mindful connections with others. Strengthening relationships with loved ones, practicing empathy and compassion, and fostering a sense of community can enrich our lives and provide invaluable support during challenging times. Taking the time to truly connect with others can cultivate feelings of belonging and fulfillment.

As we embark on the journey of spring cleaning our minds, let's approach it with intention, patience, and self-compassion. By decluttering mental spaces, nurturing positive habits, fostering inner growth, and cultivating mindful connections, we can embrace the season of renewal with a refreshed outlook and a renewed sense of well-being.

SPRING HAS SPRUNG! ... and that means, the Spring Real Estate Market is coming in HOT!

My name is Jamie Rideout, and I'm a Real Estate associate with Royal LePage Gateway Realty. My passion is working with homeowners to help them achieve their goals, whether that be downsizing, upgrading, investing or helping you find your first home! I spent over a decade in the finance industry before naturally moving into the amazing world of Real Estate. Being born and raised in The County of Leduc, gives me a wonderful understanding of the beautiful communities that lie within, as well as the surrounding areas. I have an incredible team of resources that can help you begin your next chapter, stress free and it's easier than it seems!

The New Year is in full swing and I often have people wondering, "When is the right time to list my home?" or, "I wish I knew what I could sell my home for". Listing your home at the very beginning of the busy spring market can have several potential advantages!

1. Less competition: In many real estate markets, the spring season brings new listings, as many homeowners wait for warmer weather to put their homes on the market. By selling at the beginning of a busy spring market, you may face less competition from other sellers, potentially making your home more attractive to buyers.
2. Motivated buyers: Buyers who were actively searching for homes before the spring rush may be more motivated to make a purchase. This could result in a faster sale and potentially a better price for your home.
3. Quicker sale: With fewer homes on the market, your property may stand out more and attract buyers looking to make a purchase quickly. This could lead to a faster sale and less time spent on the market.
4. Timing: Selling at the beginning of the spring market can also provide you with more flexibility in terms of timing your move. You may have an easier time coordinating your sale with the purchase of your next home and the logistics of moving.

I would love the opportunity to sit down and build a custom, no obligation, free home market evaluation for you to determine the value of your home. Please don't hesitate to contact me with any questions you might have. I can't wait to get started!
